Data-as-a-Product Solution
Empower everyone to be data driven

SOLUTION
Empower everyone to instantly discover and use Data Products instead of waiting for slow and complex ETL.

Business is more data driven than ever and the demand for fast and easy data and analytics is at an all-time high.

Problem With Data and Analytics Today.
The current state of decision making is not sustainable.

Getting data to consumers is too hard, takes too long, and requires too many tools.

As a result, the speed and autonomy that business teams need just isn’t possible.

Why.
3 Big Paradigms Have Shifted

Business relies on getting data from multiple sources
More data + More data types + More locations = Bigger & Longer ETL/ELT jobs
More users require access creating issues around security & access control
